E. German Guard Killed In Fracas

BERLIN (AP) - An East German border guard was killed and another wounded by West German police Wednesday in a gun fight over a 15-year-old boy swimming to freedom in the West.

It was the first killing of a border guard on either side since the Communists erected their wall through Berlin last Aug. 13. The escapee made it to the west bank of the 30-yard wide Landwehr Canal but suffered at least seven bullet wounds. He was reported in very serious condition. It was not clear from the West-

Salan Verdict: Life In Prison

PARIS (AP)-A French special military tribunal Wednesday convicted ex-Gen, Raoul Salan of treason and sentenced him to life extenuating circumstances that moved the judges to spare him from the death penalty.

The tribunal sentenced Salan, once the nation's most decorated officer, for his role in the shortlived generals' putsch in Algiers last year and for his leadership of the Secret Army Organization terrorist campaign that seeks to retain French rule in Algeria. Salan went underground to or ganize and lead the Secret Army following the collapse of the putsch. He led the Secret Army until his recent capture in Algiers.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, our drug called OD-RINEX. You must lose ugly fat in 7 days or your money back. No strennous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take OD-RINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like, but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down, because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ### MEMO FOR MEMORIAL DAY: Get Seat Belts For The Car

This Memorial Day, don't let holiday traffic take its toll from among your family. Protect yourself and your loved ones with seat belts. Seat belts can make the critical difference between life and death when an accident occurs. If every driver and every passenger used seat belts, we could save at least 5,000 lives a year . . . reduce serious injuries 1/3!

If Khrushchev's claim that the So- phasis on an acute shortage of meatviet economy will equal or even outproduce the American eceonomy in the foreseeable future is to be realized, he'll have to pull some mighty big rabbits out of a mighty small hat.

A lengthly article in the New York Times by Harry Schwartz tells the story. In certain areas Soviet industry, driven by the heaviest kind of official compulsion, has made significant strides. But trouble spots abound. For instance, 1961 results were below announced 1961 goals in such all-important fields as national income, labor productivity, foreign trade, and oil produc-

Every normal child born into this vast world is a trinity-mental, physical, moral—and every part of that trinity should be developed and molded while the mind is still pliable. When merely the physical part of a child is developed, a sturdy little savage results. Likewise, when only the mental ability is developed, the laws of nature have been ignored and the child usually becomes an eccentric. Moderation in all three phases—mental, physical, moral should be the building block for all parents and teachers.

Every normal child has some latent talent, some aptitude for a particular profession, or some manual dexterity. Both parents and teachers must be constantly on the alert for signs of such talents. Before age six a child's mind has acquired many of the foundations for good or evil, but its development continues after the child enters school. Is this, then, not the time when children's talents should be nurtured?

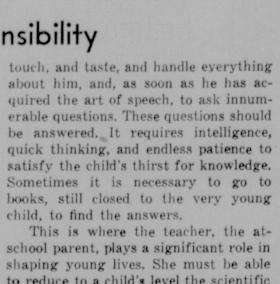

Nature has endowed the child with an eager curiosity, with a desire to

This change in attitude is not endearing him to Speaker John McCormack, uncle of Eddie Mc-Cormack, Boland largely owes his place on the powerful House Appropriations Committee to the speaker, who took him under his wing and got him the choice committee assignment.

Also now actively campaign ing for Ted are his mother and other-in-law Stephen Smith, who recently left the State Department to take charge of Kennedy family business inter-

The latest shows he has made some gains but is still quite a bit behind his rival. Of the committed delegates, McCormack continues to hold an 8 to 5 lead. A total of 1,763 delegates will attend the Springfield conven-tion. Its endorsement is not decisive.

Regardless of what the convention does, candidates can run in the primary. Young Kennedy insists he is "going all the Efforts of former Governor

"Happy" Chandler and one-time Senator Earle Clements to wrest the Democratic senatorial nomination from Kentucky's Lieutenant Governor Wilson Wyatt have suffered a stunning setback. Their candidate, Harry Lowman, had to withdraw from the race because of serious illness. That leaves Chandler and Clements out in the cold, but is a big break for Wyatt and Democratic unity in the fall campaign against Republican Senator Thruston Morton, Chandler and Clements were bitter personal and political foes, but buried their differences to 'get' Wyatt . . . Representative William Green, Philadelphia Democratic leader, won a resounding triumph in the recent primary. His slate swept every contest and over whelmingly defeated every rival put up against it. In 1960, Green's organization gave President Kennedy a majority of more than 375,000 in the Philadelphia area. It was this huge vote that put Pennsylvania in his column Representative Walter Baring, D.-Nev., was openly spanked by the state Democratic convention for his opposition to Kennedy administration policies. When a Baring message was read at the convention, it was greeted by silence and a few hisses. Later a resolution lauding the national and state administrations made no mention of Baring. Some Democratic leaders are openly seeking a candidate against him . . . HEW Secretary Ribicoff wants to hang on to his job until July 1, shortly before the convening of the Connecticut Democratic convention that will nominate the partys senatorial candidate. Ribicoff feels that will help his chances. But White House insiders are making no bones they feel he should resign by June 15, at the latest. Ribicoff faces tough opposition from Representative Frank Kowalski, retired regular Army officer who is running on a wigorous liberal program.

The case-directed against the Insurance Co. of North American. Philadelphia, and six subsidiary firms—is the first of its kind raised in American courts, the court was told.

Unclaimed funds are referred to to law as escheats.

Robert B. Ely, III, counsel for Ina, contended the premiums on the perpetual poll the company and only the company. The commonwealth has no right to interfere with the insurance contract, he said.

Ina, seeking a final determina tion of its rights to the deposits, posed the question to the high court. Dauphin County Court had dismissed the commonwealth's escheat petitions on furisdictional grounds without deciding the merits of the state claim.

Ely asked the court to rule none of the premiums are escheatable and end the dispute which has lasted between the companies and the commonwealth for the past 25

Deputy Atty. Gen. Jack M. Coher asked the court to rule that the commonwealth has a right to the deposits if they go unclaimed for seven or more years. The owner is entitled to recover

In this uncertain weather, fluctuating between the low sixties and the high eighties, it is a problem to know exactly how to dress . . . particularly if one is venturing out of town into a city such as New York. New York can be sweltering, but there is usually some hint of a breeze, and always of course there is air conditioning. Thinking along these lines, plus the fact of an early morning departure, a late evening return home. and the fact that the calendar still says Spring, I decided to wear my Pendleton suit last Friday when I joined Margaret MacLaren's excursion into the metropolis.

Apparently my reasoning was not bad, for a suit was also the attire selected by Mrs. Louis I. Brill, who had commuted from her suburban home to the National Headquarters of Hadassah for our 10 o'clock interview. Mrs. Brill is a kindly woman with graying hair, a soft voice, and a purposeful manner, who serves as coordinator of Hadassah fashion shows held throughout our nation each year, and to be presented by the local chapter (in cooperation with Wyckoff's) on Wednesday evening, June 13, at Tamiment-in-the-Poconos. Her entire appearance reflects an interest in fine fabrics and smart styling. The warm beige of her suit was topped by an elegant, wide-brimmed hat of apricot straw, so sheer and fine it resembled shirred chiffon. Mrs. Brill tells me she enjoys seeing other people wear hats and can appreciate the beauty of a chapeau, but would prefer not to wear one, yielding to brims only because her skin is sensitive to sunlight. How fortunate that this is so! She wears "important" hats very well.

Her office is located on the fourth floor of the Hadassah headquarters, a charming building on East 52nd Street. It has the usual office furnishings except for a series of delightful water colors, prettily matted and framed, that decorate the walls. At a glance, I recognized the subjects as being gowns we have shown here in our previous Israeli shows-the pick of the many distinguished evening gowns, cocktail dresses and suits that bring gasps of pleasure from the audience as they are paraded up and down the runway. One, for instance, was the glorious white satin floor-length sheath of last year with its heavily embroidered jacket featuring a stand-up portrait neckline. In the corner beneath the glass is tucked a swatch of the fabric. I recall that last year I truly believed this to be the most beautiful gown I had ever seen, but Mrs. Brill tells me there are others just as magnificent in this year's show which is touring such important American cities as Baltimore, Los Angeles, Boston, Chicago, and Philadelphia before arriving in the Stroudsburgs for the June 13th engagement. OUR LOCAL HADASSAH CHAPTER IS THE SMALLEST TO RECEIVE THIS YEAR'S SHOW, and as Mrs. Brill points out, this area is most fortunate to be scheduled along with the great cities of the nation. Many towns, far larger than ours, are receiving the show that made the rounds of the larger Hadassah chapters last year. We in the Poconos have earned special consideration because of the large attendance and great enthusiasm that have marked local presentations since the very first year. Mrs. Brill's assistant in scheduling the shows is a friendly, dark-eyed, fair-haired woman named Augusta Zentner. Theirs is a terrific job, juggling dates and schedules in order to see that the collection goes from city to city as rapidly as possible at the minimum cost for freight. It is not easy to set a course that eliminates backtracking and useless waste of time, yet manages to keep everyone everywhere happy. Devoted service to Hadassah's cause is the tranquilizer that permits both women to keep sane heads and cheery smiles in the face of whatever disaster threatens to short-circuit the entire program. Any woman who has ever served as chairman of even one major fashion show will realize what it would mean to be responsible for at least one a week throughout the year EVERY year. Just thinking about it is exhausting.

Presenting the Tornado-OHC, America's first overhead camshaft engine designed specially for commercial vehicles. WHAT IS AN OHC ENGINE? In a conventional engine, the valves are on top-the camshaft, which operates them, down below. The Tornado-OHC has overhead valves and an overhead camshaft - which is what OHC stands for. The simplicity of this system-it has 36 fewer moving parts - makes it much more efficient. It produces 33% more power with up to 25% better gas economy-needs less
